New York Stock Market

New York, April 7 .-- Trading in stocks lagged to-day, and movements were hesitating with a tendency to-ward heaviness. Hear restraining fac-tors effectually blocked continuation of the recent upward movement.
Abroad the markets reflected the effect of complications in the Balkan situa-tion, owing to the attitude of Monte-negro. From Washington came news of the convening of Congress and in-troduction of the tariff bill. In the bill there were no important deviations from the forecasts, and its publication was of no effect on the list. But traders were in no mood to resume operathe market on the eve of presenta-tion of the President's messa. and the beginning of what is expected to protracted struggle over the lower with numerous declines of a ly, and before noon had recovered most of the early losses, with Rending selling a point above Saturday's close. During the remainder of the session novements were narrow until shortly before the close, when the whole list fell back again. Weakness of special tacks contributed to the heaviness of the list. Rumely fell 2 1-2 points more to 34 1-2, another low level. Chesaake and Ohio continued its decline, lling 2 3-8 to 66. Beef sugar was sold down, yielding over three Bonds lost ground with some large declines in special issues. Tetal sales, par value, $3,259,000. United States bonds unchanged on eath, Montague and Watson Attend Opening, Former Introducing Bill.

Washington, April 7 .-- This was a big day for the Virginia delegation in Congress. Not only were the old menibers of both the House and Senate present when the two bodies were called to order, but there were two new faces in the House, former Governor Andrew J. Montague and Judge Watson. Governor Montague entered sion began and took a good seat on the Democratic side where he soon med a number of members who are to become his colleagues. Judge Watson, not coming in quite so soon, had to content himself for a while with a scat on the Republican side, but not finding this altogether to his liking, and not very congental, he kept his eyes wide open, and when there was a vacant place on the other side of the chamber among the Democrats he promptly moved over. Both he and Governor Montague met a number of members during the day and received a cordial welcome from their fellow-bemocrats.

The Importance of Strength

Recent statistics show that in New York State, through consolidation, the number of trust companies has decreased by ten.

The capital employed, however, has increased eleven million dollars. Strength is evidently very necessary.
